

PLANNED LONG HIKE TO SEE FAIR, BUT IT ENDS IN MANHATTAN

Brooklyn Boys Hadn't Thought of Trip to Pacific Until Schools Opened.

It was not until the schools opened that Michael Crim, thirteen, of No. 85 George Street, and Joseph Krantz, twelve, of No. 146 South Street, Brooklyn, decided to visit the San Francisco Exposition. Their trip, however, ended early today in Police Headquarters here.

A man going into the hallway at Kenmore and Mulberry Streets about midnight stumbled over two bundles, and Mike and Amelio, who were straightening up. They said they had no parents and no home, and had not eaten for days. The man insisted they go up to his apartment and be fed. They were not hungry enough for that.

He then noticed each had been using a bundle of school books for a pillow, and became suspicious. He took them to Police Headquarters, where Detective Gervin was unable to get much information from them. They didn't even know their names for sure, until the detectives found them on the Byways of the books.

Then they admitted they had planned to walk to the Pacific Coast and see the fair. Yesterday they crammed as much food as they could into their pockets and went to school. On being dismissed they began their long hike.

STROLLING PLAYERS STROLL INTO FAVOR AT COLUMBIA THEATRE.

The Strolling Players, talented burlesquers, opened their season this week at the Columbia Theatre with a rip-roaring burlesque show speeded here and there with little bits of vaudeville.

In the two acts that compose the show there are fine scenic and costume displays. Gus Fay as Fritz Noodles and "Fat" Siskie as Felix Herlingbone caused much merriment. The action of the first act is supposed to take place at Coney Island, where Fritz and his partner, Felix, are arrested for receiving stolen goods. They are taken to jail, and there, on Blackwell's Island, a burlesque on Warden Osborne's Mutual Welfare League is offered. Felix and Fritz escape from the jail by blowing it up and land in a girl's seminary. In order to stay there Felix and Fritz disguise themselves as girls and the subsequent scenes bring out much of the fun of the performance. During an intermission Doris Thayer sang the song which Nora Bayes made famous, "When Grandma Was a Girl."

MOVIE ENTHUSIASTS GET GOOD MEASURE AT PLAZA THEATRE.

Movie patrons witnessed a fine series of pictures at the Plaza Theatre last night. Among them was a five-reel picture featuring George Fawcett in "Majesty of the Law," which was well received by the large audience. The story of the picture deals with a stern judge who is severe on law breaking. The climax of the story comes with the arrest of his son on a charge of burglary. Other pictures that were interesting was a two-reel Western drama picture, the "Shirley of the Red Rock," and a scenic picture, the Alpine Rock Climbers.

SUFFERED FOR YEARS UNTIL REMEDY WAS FOUND

Mrs. George Miller Feels Deeply Grateful for Remedy Which Ended Her Stomach Troubles.

Mrs. George Miller, David St., Ogdensburg, N. Y., had been greatly troubled with stomach ailments for several years and failed to find relief until she discovered Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and took it according to directions. Here is what she wrote: "I received the bottle of your remedy, for which I feel deeply grateful, as I took it with the best results, and it relieved me of as much as one hundred gall stones from which I had been suffering for several years. I have highly recommended it to all my friends and can never say enough in its praise. When I went to the drug store for the second bottle, the druggist told me that he sold more of your medicine than any he ever had in his store."

Mayr's Wonderful Remedy gives permanent results for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments. Eat as much and whatever you like. No more distress after eating, pressure of gas in the stomach and around the heart. Get one bottle of your druggist now and try it on an absolute guarantee—if not satisfactory money will be returned—Adv.

To determine the cause of death in the case of two-year-old Dorothy Klein, who died yesterday afternoon in the Floating Hospital, the Board of Health has ordered Coroner Elbert to have an autopsy performed. The physician at the hospital gave the cause of death as

Really Restful Eyeglasses

Old Style Macy Style

MACY'S Invisible Bifocals are a positive relief to any one who has been wearing the old-style glasses with the visible line of division.

WITH THESE IMPROVED GLASSES you can read a book and admire the distant view without change of glasses—a convenience that only those can fully appreciate who have sometimes mislaid or forgotten the pair of glasses most needed.

NOR IS THERE ANY CONSPICUOUS EVIDENCE OF CE-MENTING, as in the old-style glasses to make you appear years older, or to strain and confuse the sight.

MACY'S INVISIBLE BIFOCALS are so wholly restful and convenient that many people would gladly pay more than the moderate price we ask.

APPOINTMENTS FOR EXAMINATION by one of our Registered Optometrists may be made over the telephone. Call "Greedy 4100."
